Thursday 14th June is World Blood Donor Day

Lord Jesus Christ, Head of the body of the Church. We worship you with all of our being. Fill us with love, kindness and goodness from your Holy Spirit. Inspire us to give live-saving blood for our brothers, sisters and children in need. Like the Good Samaritan may we be a good neighbour to the sick and injured. Through our gifts of blood and your grace bring healing and comfort to those living with conditions like cancer or sickle cell disease. Give strength to those having regular transfusions or emergency treatment. We give you thanks for everyone who gives blood and ask for courage for those who are nervous about making their first donation. For the nurses and doctors who collect and use blood we praise you. For the gifts of those involved in medical research, we exalt you. Loving Jesus, may we be your hands and feet as we serve you day by day in our homes, in our communities and in our networks. We ask these things in your Holy name. Amen

Aquabox: THANK YOU for filling the latest box. It is now ready to be taken away - which means, of course, that a new list is on the Church Life notice board. Again, the list is short because of the generosity of so many of you who buy items 2 at a time. You are great. Bob

Spectrum Theatre, Sheffield

Presents...

IN SOMEONE ELSE'S SHOES

A PLAY ABOUT THE AUTISTIC SPECTRUM AND US.

Monday 25th June 2018, 7.30pm at the Church of St Columba, Crosspool

1 in 100 people in the UK are diagnosed as being on the Autistic Spectrum. That's 6000 people in Sheffield. Let's suppose they each have 5 close family members – that's at least 30,000 people in Sheffield who live with, or side-by-side with, this condition.

So – What is it? How does it affect those on the Spectrum? And what questions does it ask of so-called 'normal' people – whatever that means?!

'IN SOMEONE ELSE'S SHOES' is an entertaining, thought-provoking play devised by Spectrum Theatre, Sheffield, a theatre group made up of some who are on the Spectrum and some who aren't. It is suitable for anyone of secondary school age and older.

To reserve seats: Phone 267 0006 (St Columba's) or email either of the following priest-in-charge@stcolumbacrosspool.org.uk or spectrumtheatre.sheffield@gmail.com

Tickets are free, with a bucket collection on the evening
